

CHURCH SEATS AND CHURCH PEWS

New Styles Cheap and Endurable.

Comfort and Beauty Combined.

UNTIL the large number of people who are never seen in churches can be assured that every church in this vicinity will have a set of seats that will be clean, comfortable and inviting, they will not be seen inside a church. Many churches will supply this long-felt want if they could do so at prices and on terms within their reach, thus increasing their attendance, drawing on the unusually large number of people who do not attend the churches, and which would evidently result in every service being crowded. A barrier has been in the way in the form of high prices, shoddy goods and no terms. This barrier has been removed by the Church Supply Department of the National Baptist Publishing Board, which has presented the new style church seat (its own creation and its own make). These seats are constructed of the best grade of hardwood. They are built by the best skilled mechanics and have proven to be the most comfortable ever offered at the prices. The terms on which they can be purchased are so easy that any church, regardless of its financial condition, can secure a set of these by a small cash payment, have the seats installed and pay the remainder in monthly or quarterly payments to suit their own financial condition. How long, with such inviting inducements offered, will it be, before every church in and about Nashville will get a set of seats? References can be given to the Nashville churches by referring them to Rev. L. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the St. John Baptist Church, Pearl St.; Rev. J. L. Harding, pastor of the North Third Avenue Baptist Church, both of whom have seated with new style church seats; Rev. G. B. Taylor, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, corner Stevens and DeLuge Sts.; Rev. Wm. Haynes, pastor of Sylvan Street Church, Shelby Avenue, who have installed the church pews.

FIVE O'CLOCK TEA.

An exceptionally beautiful and artistic tea in all its appointments was given October 8, at 5 o'clock by Mrs. Preston Taylor complimentary to Mrs. D. N. Crosthwait, of Kansas City, Mo., who has been spending some time at her old home with her former friends. The guest list included many old friends of the honoree. The beauty of the Taylor home was seen at its best, and reminded one of fairyland. In the beautiful living room pink roses and ferns filled the flower receptacle. Frappe was served during the evening in the reception hall. The guests numbered thirty-nine, all of whom were seated for an elaborate menu of several courses. The table in the dining room was one of rare pictorial beauty. In the center was a bouquet of autumnal cosmos and ferns in a vase of green and gold.

PEARL HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Many improvements are being made at this school, which are both useful and ornamental. In a few days the exterior view of the building will be as pretty and as pleasing to the eye as any school building in the city.

The superintendent of schools, Prof. H. C. Weber, has directed the school painters to paint the wood-work of the building, giving it two coats and also to paint the tin roof. The first coat has been applied and the building has begun already to look bright and fresh. Some days ago the principal asked that a brick walk be laid across the front yard so that the girls of the First Floor would not have to pass out of the school yard to the sidewalk and back again in going out at recess. The Superintendent at once granted this request and had the bricks sent down and soon the girls will have a new brick walk.

Two nice, large, new clocks now hang on the walls of the rooms of the Manual Training Department.

The girls in the cooking classes can now cook their foods and boil their eggs by clock-time. Your reporter hopes that none of them will be so absent-minded as the famous Lessing. It will be remembered that once upon a time Lessing was so absorbed in study that he forgot to eat. When the pangs of hunger touched him he called for a boiled egg. The maid brought the egg, whereupon Lessing commanded her to leave, saying that he would boil the egg himself. On departing, the maid cautioned him to boil the egg just five minutes. After remaining away some little time, the maid returned to find Lessing standing before the fire, egg in hand with the watch at the bottom of the kettle in the boiling water. Girls, please do not boil the clocks!

The Principal has been directed by the Superintendent to select some wall paper for the rear entrance hall and walls above the stairway for this school. This improvement will add greatly to the interior appearance of the rear hall.

The dining room of the Domestic Science Department will soon possess a very useful and ornamental piece of furniture in the form of a side-board.

The Superintendent last Tuesday authorized Miss E. B. Moore, through the Principal, to select a sideboard to her own taste at a cost of $25.

This school is on the boom. No stone is left unturned to make Pearl High equal to the best school of its kind in the country. Prof. H. C. Weber has the confidence of the colored people. They believe that as long as he sits in the saddle they will get the Rooseveltian "square deal." Prof. Weber makes no fuss. He blows no horn and beats no drum. He is too modest and his nature too refined to advertise himself. He abhors horn-blowers. He would never acquire the name of "Fuss and Feathers." But in a quiet, unassuming way he performs his duty. The thinking colored people see the results, Napier School, Hadley School, Manual Training in Pearl High School, additions to Carter, Knowles and Trimble Bottom Schools are all the result of his work.

The following young ladies of the High School were present at the Horse Show and Carnival on Tuesday night. They lent some beauty and lustre to the occasion: Misses Minnie Fite, Ophelia Alexander and Eleanor Battle, of the Senior Class; Misses Edwina Smith, Clara Frierson, Beulah Perkins, Bessie Morgan, Brucie May Ewing, Louella Mayberry, of the Middle Class, and Misses Vannoy Webster, Lena Barnes, Addie Allison and Bessie Garrett of the Junior Class.

THOMAS-BRYANT.

The marriage of Mr. Nelson E. Thomas, of No. 165 Lafayette street, and Mary C. Bryant, Past Secretary of Seven Seal Temple No. 16, and Chronicler of Q. E. C. No. 115, I. O. I., was quietly solemnized at the residence, of Mrs. Nathaniel Jones, No. 1709 Third Avenue, North, by Rev. J. J. Edwards, pastor of Salem Church. Only the family and a few personal friends were present. The couple were the recipients of many useful and valuable presents, among which were 1 handsome center rug, from G. H. R. Tyne; linens and water cooler, Mrs. S. S. Turner; one set table linens, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Elkins; towels, Mr. Wm. Petterson; lace curtains, Mr. Morris and Misses H. and I. R. Lebeck; check, $3.00, Hon. P. F. Hill, and many other gifts from Moore Grocery Company, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bassett, Miss Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Wallis Thomas, Mrs. Bloch and Mrs. Glover.

NASHVILLIANS ENTERTAINED IN CHICAGO.

The elegant flat of Prof. and Mrs. W. L. Niblo was the scene of grand splendor last Thursday evening, every room showing richness and beauty, the occasion being an informal mid-night luncheon in honor of Mr. Hervey Clemmons, who is pianist at the Alcazar Theatre. The guests did not arrive until after 11 o'clock, and they partook of Prof. and Mrs. Niblo's hospitality until 3 a. m. Others of Nashville among the guests were
